SIERRA MADRE, CALIF., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1952

VOL. 46, NO. 47

merely scratch the surface of our crammed calendar, we note that this is Fire Prevention Week, National Newspaper Week, National Kids' Week, and Civil Defense Week. Most people can still remember when a week was just a week, and this one would be labeled simply October 2 to 9.

The P-TA seems to have a real idea for Halloween this year. The kids will still go out on their neighborhood treks for handouts, but the loot (needles, thread, etc.) will be shipped to needy families in Korea. Treats? Sure! The youngsters will get their refreshments when they get back to the school. Neat, huh?

The Bill Keiths of Grandview had their patience tried almost -but not quite-to the breaking point last week. It seems they recently completed construction on a flight of basement steps and, when electricians came to fix the wiring the other day, a small panel was left open. Unfortunately Cindy, the Keiths' adventuresome setter, found the opening. After a couple of hours on the AWOL list, the pooch thumped her (or is it his or "its") tail against the wall and made known her position. The next frantic hours were spent in trying to extricate the dog, finally accomplished 14 hours later. How did they manage it? Yes, and we shudder to report this, they had to tear down the brand new set of steps.

Have YOU bared your soul and made a complete, itemized report of your personal financial history yet? It's the vogue, you know.

THIS WEEK'S GEM: Ridiculous figures — the prices paid for women's clothes and some of the forms that wear them.

Stevenson Club to Meet Wednesday

The Stevenson-Sparkman Club will meet at 28 Windsor Lane next Wednesday evening

The Sierra Madre Stevenson-Sparkman Club is perhaps the only one in Southern California which boasts an oil portrait of Governor Stevenson. The Democratic Presidential nominee did not sit for it, however. For once, Alfred James Dewey broke his rule and painted a portrait from a published picture in Life magazine.

As usual, Sierra Madre has some tie with the persons who are making history just now. Mrs. Celeste Burns of Sierra Madre is related to Stephen Mitchell, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and thinks he may be here before the campaign is over. If he does, the local Stevenson-Sparkman Club will hope to meet him at a rally. Incidentally, there are three Stevensons in Sierra Madre, all registered as Democrats.

The club now has a telephone, CUster 5-1377.

An inveterate attender of meetings and gatherings in the city, Mrs. Dietz has been active in numerous organizations hereabouts, in addition to the Woman's Club. These include the Order of the Eastern Star, The Friendship Club, the Garden Club and the Episcopal Church of the Ascension.

"I enjoy all of the programs and all of the speakers," Mrs. Dietz reports with enthusiasm. "I wouldn't miss any of them for the world. I'm enjoying the best of health and I've never been more interested than I am now, in what goes on around

On that day the congregation will hold its first worship service in the newly-completed church building at Hastings Ranch drive and Sierra Madre Musical portions of the service will be presented by the recently-organized choir, under the direction of Choral Director Manning Marquis Jr. Members of the congregation will participate with other Protestant churches throughout the world in the observance of World Wide Communion Sunday.

the afternoon pet and hobby show and the evening variety show.

Art Ritterrath, chairman of the Kiwanis Club Kids' Day Committee, conceded that the occasion must have been a huge success "if the kids had as much fun as we had in sponsoring it."

Chairman Ritterrath added, however, that "we learned a lot of pointers to make next year's Kids' Day better yet."

Sierra Madre merchants donated many prizes to the boys and girls having the best pa rade, pet, and hobby entries. Prizes were awarded as follows: Pet and hobby show winners will be listed next week. Parade prizes were awarded as follows:

Wagons-Floyd Bennett, first prize (carpenter's level, Sierra Madre Hardware, frontier jacket, Hall's Youngland); Timmy McDonough, second ($5 merchandise order from Don Jackson); Courtney Shropshire, third (level, Sierra Madre Hardware, levy pants, Tiny Scalzo);

HIGHLAND WORK STARTS MONDAY

Repair of Highland avenue, between Mountain Trail and Baldwin, is slated for Monday and Tuesday of next week. Final approval of Osburn Company's bid to supply materials for the project came at a short special session of the City Council Tuesday evening.

The firm will provide approximately 500 tons of asphaltic concrete for the new surface which will cover the existing subgrade. Through a supplemental agreement with city, not included in the bid, the company will rent a grader and roller for the work.

City Administrator R. Merritt Baker reminded residents to make arrangements ahead of time for getting their autos out of the block. "Every improvement inevitably causes some inconvenience," he observed.

Additional work is planned soon for Highland between Baldwin and Lima, but Mr. Baker explained this will require a change in grading and contour and is not being done during the present job.

JAMES C. HEASLEY . . . explains 'week'

Heasley Tells Fire Prevention Week's Meaning

Fire Chief James C. Heasley reminded Sierra Madreans that Fire Prevention Week, although it is being celebrated this week, Oct. 5 to 11, should be observed every week of the year.

"The purpose in designating one week is to direct public attention to the tremendous loss in life and property that results each year from fire," Chief Heasley said, "and to emphasize the safety measures whereby these losses can be substantially reduced."

Continuing his special statement to residents, Mr. Heasley said that "President Truman, in his proclamation setting aside this one week of the year to this national effort, has pointed out that safety to life and property is a matter of individual responsibility.

"Let us assume our share of this responsibility and thereby help make Sierra Madre safe from fire," the chief concluded.

PLANNERS ACT TO SOLVE 'HARDSHIP CASE'

All's well that ends well, a Sierra Madre couple agreed last week as the city's red tag was taken off their building project. Work had been halted abruptly on a room addition underway at the John Kennedy home, 72 W. Montecito, when it was discovered a permit to build had been issued, in error, while City Building Inspector William Lees was away on vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy were understandably upset when informed that their construction was illegal without obtaining a variance—a legal process that usually requires at least 30 days. Their new room already was well along toward comple-

City Planning Commissioners heard the "hardship case" Thursday night and promptly agreed that the Kennedys had been dealt one off the bottom of the deck.

The planners voted to grant a rear-yard variance (from 20 to 13 feet) without first holding a public hearing because, as they stated it, a building permit was granted in error, and if a variance were not granted, 'substantial damage would be done to the property owners."

Medical Personnel To Report In Drill

LIONS TO SPONSOR PRE-HALLOWEEN WINDOW PAINTING

For the third consecutive year, the impish impulses of local youngsters will be channeled into constructive activity this Halloween.

The Sierra Madre Lions Club has announced that it is again sponsoring a downtown window-painting contest for children of all three local schools.

According to Percy C. Kortkamp, chairman, the brushwielding session is slated for Saturday, Oct. 25. Halloween, of course, isn't until the following Friday, but the Lions hope their contest will give boys and girls the chance to "let off steam" without causing property damage. Prizes will be awarded for the best artistic efforts in each age group.

'BUMPER CROP' OF AWARDS SLATED FOR HONOR COURT

One-hundred and fifty advancement awards are expected to be presented to Sierra Madre Boy Scouts at the first Court of Honor, slated for 7:15 p.m. Monday, Oct. 6, in the City School auditorium.

The event will mark the official opening of the scout year, and the "bumper crop" of awards has been accumulating since the start of the summer.

E. L. Cook, advancement and awards chairman for the Sierra Madre Boy Scout District, invites the public-and, particularly, parents of scouts-to attend the honor court.

One of the highlights of the evening will be the presentation of a scouting award to Leonard Barrett, who is still a member of Sea Scout Ship No. 1 although he has been on active duty with the US Navy for more than a year. Barrett, whose ship is moored at present at San Pedro, will be on hand to receive his able sea-

P-TA Sparks 'Different' Halloween

Forty-five Sierra Madre organizations have been invited to have representatives at a planning session to be held at p.m. Friday, Oct. 3, in the City School cafeteria.

Sierra Madre's Parent-Teacher Association is promoting a different sort of Halloween for youngsters this year.

Instead of the traditional trick or treat gags, the P-TA will encourage boys and girls to take cloth bags on their neighborhood rounds and ask for sewing materials.

The children will seek needles, thread, buttons, and thimbles for the bags which will be shipped by the American Friends Service Committee to destitute and war-torn families in Korea.

The kids won't have to go without their treats, however, since refreshments will be served at the school following the neighborhood scavenging Entertainment also is

Mrs. Van Blair of Long Beach briefly explained mechanics and purposes of the project at the September 18 meeting of the P-TA. She pointed out that the AFSC originated the idea, and it has been sponsored successfully by organizations in East Whittier and Palo

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Willis, P-TA presidents, said a committee will be set up to arrange final details for the Halloween event. They expressed the hope that other organizations would add their support to the project through announcements at the Community Coordinating Coun-

Col. Charles Gildart, associate director of Civil Defense for Sierra Madre, said earlier this week that the drill certainly would reveal "several deficiencies" in the local organization.

One of the most important deficiencies, he said, became apparent at the last CD planning meeting. At that session only six of the 12 service chiefs were present.

"This shows the lack of alternates in every echelon," Colonel Gildart stated. "And if there is a lack of alternates at present, it is likely that there will be when the business comes."

By "business" the colonel meant, of course, an enemy attack.

"We're still short a chief of engineering services," he continued. "due to the resignation of William Noel, who has been recalled by the Navy. And we have no defense shelter yet."

Citing the "insufficient staff personnel" to man the CD control center, Colonel Gildart said there was an urgent need for an operations officer-preferably someone with experience in battalion work or higher in the Army or Air Force, or its counterpart in the Navy. He said it would be "greatly appreciated" if any such person saw fit to volunteer his serv-

The associate director again lamented the fact that Sierra Madre has no air raid siren and must still rely on the fire

"It is essential that Sierra Madre have the same signal as every other city in the United States," he declared.

Another civil defense deficiency in Sierra Madre is in the public's appreciation of the importance of this work, Colonel Gildart remarked, referring residents to the current issue of Life magazine which contains an article describing what happened at Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

"It's true that we're not pri-

Council Gets Proposal For New Zone

Sierra Madre's Planning Commission has recommended to the City Council that a new C-1 modified zone be created for Sierra Madre boulevard, between Lima and Michillinda.

The action, which came at last Thursday night's meeting of the commissioners, followed two public hearings on the proposed change. Only a few comments, either for or against, were heard at both hearings. City councilmen are expected to consider the recommendation at their next meeting on

As recommended by the planners, the new zone would allow only the following type of professional uses: accountants, architects, attorneys, chiroprodists, chiropractors, dentists, engineers, insurance agents, opticians, optometrists, osteopaths, physicians, surgeons and real estate brokers. Other uses permitted, of course, would be the same as for R-1, R-2 and R-3

LIONS TO HEAR CLUB PRESIDENT

"President's night" will be observed at this evening's meeting of the Sierra Madre Lions Club, 7:15 at the Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre boulevard. Ralph (Pappy) Welch said the entire program will be handled by President Bob Buttcane, who will "preview things to come" in the Lions Club.

HEARING TUESDAY ON RANCH BUSES

A public hearing on bus service in the Hastings Ranch has been called for 10 a.m. next Tuesday, Oct. 7, before the State Public Utilities Commission. The session will be held at the Pasadena City Hall.

The hearing was set following the re-application by Pasadena City Lines to extend a bus route up through the Lower and Upper Hastings Ranches.

When we go to Market

WE PAY HIGHER PRICES, TOO

When we go to market for the supplies we need, the "tools of ou trade," we pay more than twice as much as we did a few years ago Operators' chairs, for instance, are up more than 200 percent since 1940; cable, 140 percent; PBX switchboards, 123 percent; poles 160 percent.

And so it is with virtually everything we have to buy to maintain a high standard of service. Wages? They're up, too. And taxes? We hate to mention them, their rise has been so astronomical.

Naturally, the higher prices we must pay for things should be offset by higher rates. It's merely a matter of simple arithmetic, and anyone who goes to market today will understand what we mean.

Editorials:

WE PICK OUR CANDIDATES

Many readers have asked where the NEWS stands in the extremely important election facing Americans next month. We take the occasion of National Newspaper Week to make known our stand as an independent newspaper, which we have been and shall continue to be.

The label "independent newspaper" is often misunderstood by the public and some journalists.

The word "independent" simply means (to quote Webster's) "not dependent, not subject to control by others; self-governing." An independent newspaper is one that is absolutely free to choose a candidate as its conscience dictates. It owes nothing to either party and acts accordingly.

We make known our choice because we have accepted our responsibility as an independent newspaper.

We believe in the best social advancements that have taken place in America over the years. We believe that real social progress, however, must continue toward increased individual initiative and sense of responsibility, because we believe these qualities essential in American democracy.

We believe that individual initiative and sense of responsibility are at stake in this election.

We believe in the integrity, sincerity and honesty of the candidates we have chosen and in their special qualities of leadership, significant at this time in our history.

We believe in periodic change of leadership in our government to insure continued vitality and shared participation in its functioning.

Because we think they most clearly represent our own beliefs, we shall cast our votes for these candidates: For President of the United States-Dwight D. Eisenhower.

YOUR NEWSPAPER DEFENDS 'YOUR RIGHT TO KNOW'

For Vice-President-Richard M. Nixon

The right of American people to have free and unrestricted information is the 1952 theme of National Newspaper Week, now being observed throughout the nation, Oct. 1 to 8.

"Your Right to Know-A Constitutional Guarantee" is the phrase which is being stressed by newspapers across the country

The Sierra Madre NEWS-your newspaper-is dedicated not only to complete and accurate reporting of the news, but to better government and the support of every worthwhile civic project. A community needs newspaper support in order to progress. And the newspaper needs community support in order to be of service to the community.

In observing National Newspaper Week, the staff of this publication is more than ever aware of its repsponsibility to Sierra Madre and surrounding area. It shall be our endeavor in the coming year to fulfill that responsibility with renewed vigor sored by the men of the parish.

Becker-Reeves Rites Are Held In San Marino Church

The marriage of Miss Gail Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Reeves of 80 N. Carter avenue, and Richard Joseph Becker, son of the Alois F. Beckers of Hollywood, was celebrated Saturday at 10:30 a.m. in SS. Felicitas and Perpetua Church of San Marino.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Arthur Lirette. Mrs. Frank Brow, vocalist, sang "Ave Maria" and "Panus Angelicus." The bride was escorted by her father down an aisle decorated with white chrysanthemums, stock and gladioli. She wore a gown fashioned of candlelight tulle over satin, the bodice fashioned with threequarter length sleeves and trimmed about the sweetheart neckline with Alencon lace. The full skirt, which fell into a long train, was trimmed with the same lace, and this lace fashioned the coronet from which her fingertip length veil descended. She carried a white silk sequin-trimmed fan which formed a background for white baby orchids and satin streamers caught with stephanotis. Mary Adeline Reeves was maid of honor for her sister, and Ruth Ann Becker, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. The attendants were gowned alike in ballerinalength emerald green nylon tulle over taffeta, with which they wore satin sashes and matching tulle headpieces. They carried cascade arrangements of bronze and gold chrysanthemums. Robert F. Becker was best man for his brother, and guests were ushered to their places by Wilbur D. Hoffman, cousin of the bridegroom, Robert E. Price, Thomas Cashon and Andrew Cecka.

The mother of the bride chose a gown of Gainsborough blue lace, with which she wore matching gloves and pink accessories. She wore a corsage of white baby orchids. The bridegroom's mother was gowned in plum crepe model, with which she wore matching gloves, a lilac hat and a corsage of green baby orchids.

A reception at San Marino Woman's Club followed the ceremony. After their return from a wedding trip to Yosemite and San Francisco the bride and bridegroom will live in South Pasadena.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Friun of Gilman,

MEETING YOUR NEIGHBORS IN

Hastings Ranch

After that dashing around during the summer months we seem to have settled down, thank goodness. Had us in a whirl keeping up with the goings and comings of our neighbors, didn't it? Now social news holds the spotlight:

Social news-A luncheon given by Mrs. Thomas Hogan of Hampton Road in the Ship Room of the Huntington Hotel Wednesday, in honor of Mrs. Walter Bradshaw of Honolulu. The Hogan's became acquainted with the Bradshaws while visiting in Hawaii last year and have enjoyed renewing their friendship during the Bradshaw's stay at the Huntington Hotel this summer. Highlight of the luncheon was the lovely orchids which Mrs. Bradshaw had brought with her from the islands and which she presented to the guests-Mmes. Wil-Holmes, Ed Murphy, Frank Murphy, John Murphy, Robert Gingrich and Malcolm Miller; and the Ranch Wren's party, Saturday night, at the Vern Harding's home on Fairmeade Road-one of the many parties which the members of this active ranch woman's club gives during the year to which they invite their husbands. The group of about 24 couples gathered at the Harding's home about 4:00 in the afternoon for swimming, shuffle board and luck dinner, then more swimming and dancing. The monthly meeting of the Hastings Ranch Garden Club at the home of Mrs. William Hogaboom on Canfield road, Tuesday afternoon—two interesting speakers, David Gilfillan, garden editor of the Pasadena Independent; and Pat Burke of the California Spray Chemical Co., who showed a movie, "Growth of Plant Life." Refreshments were followed by a short business meeting at which time the members voted to close the membership at the present time in this new organization. (Those names which have been presented to the president, Mrs. Jay A. Rimmel, for membership in the club, will be held on a waiting list.) The present membership includes: Mmes. A. F. Warbelo, Anthony Alfredo, Charles M. Coates, R. A. Holman, Walter McGinnis, Alton Peterson, William Hogaboom, Richard Pauloo, Emil Barlow, John Nouskajian, Roger Bowen, Peter Lubisich, John Balluff, Kenneth Smith, Arthur Darby, Don Wilson, Bob Vincent, Walter Doty, Henry McNulty, Louis Boggio, Charles Ayers, William Boatright and Vern Gates.

The next meeting will be October 28 at Mrs. Anthony Alfredo's home on Canfield road. Another get-together in our —a tea for 12 neighbors, last week, given by Mrs. C. W. Lambert and Mrs. Thomas Yeakle at the Yeakle's home, to welcome a newcomer to their street, Mrs. Edwin Redman; and a meeting of the Evening Social Club of the Eastern Star at the home of Mrs. W. P. Boat-right on Canfield road. We are happy to hear that Mrs. Arthur Swanson of Rim road who underwent surgery at St. Luke Hospital last Thursday, is recovering rapidly and is expected home today.

Our congratulations to Robert Anderson, nephew of the W. P. Boatrights on Canfield road, who won a prize following the bicycle parade sponsored by the Pasadena Kiwanis Club, Saturday. Robert, who was among the 3000 boys and girls who cycled from the City Hall to Victory Park, lives in the ranch with his aunt and uncle and attends the Roosevelt School, a Pasadena school
